What to Expect

Face-to-Face

- Bring a digital or hard copy of your paper as well as the assignment description to your appointment. You may also come without a paper if you're in the beginning stages of writing.
- When you arrive, check in with the supervisor at the front desk and they will assign you a tutor.
- You will have 25 minutes to discuss your paper and ideas.
- At the end, an overview of your session will be sent to you and your professor in the form of an email.

Online

- You will need to email your paper to your tutor at least 24 hours in advance.
- The URL to the tutor's chatroom will be sent to you in a confirmation email.
- At your appointment time, click on the URL and log in with your A number and USU password.
- You will use a chatbox to talk with your tutor for 25 minutes.
- At the end, an overview of your session will be sent to you and your professor in the form of an email.

What We Help With

Content and Organization

Language and Style

Research Writing

Paragraph Writing

Sentence Construction

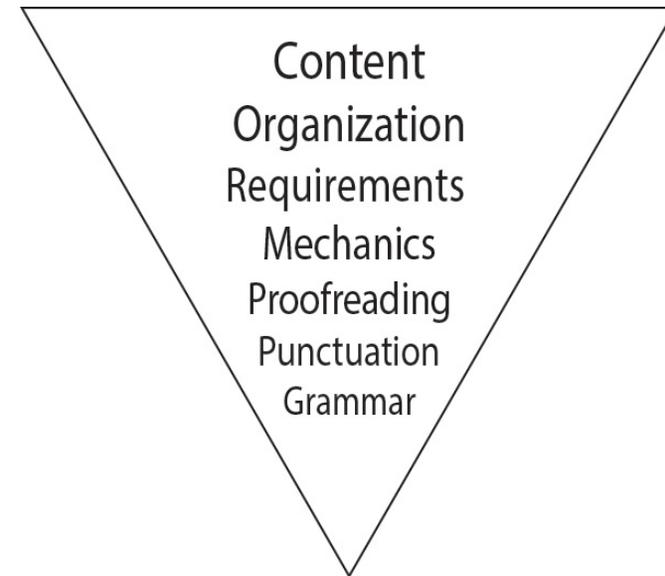

Grammar and Mechanics

Your paper doesn't have to be complete before you come to the Writing Center for help. Whether you are still brainstorming ideas or polishing your final draft, we can help at any point in the writing process.

Writing Center Goals

We focus on bigger concerns like content and organization before concentrating on smaller issues like punctuation and grammar, as shown in the image below.

At the USU Writing Center, our main goal is to help students become independent writers for life. We strive to:

- Teach students to implement writing concepts discussed in class
- Cultivate skills students need to create effective documents
- Increase the confidence of student writers
